

FAMILY GUIDE

Everything you need

In this guide, you can find our top recommendations for planning your family visit to Ski Portillo and making the most of your visit.

When to visit with your family

The magic of the mountains and skiing is best when shared with the ones you love. Ski Portillo is a family friendly ski resort that welcomes families year after year around the world looking to make memories on snow. Young skiers can enjoy the beauty of skiing in the Andes with their parents, making lifelong memories.

During July, we have created Family Weeks. These weeks focus on engaging activities for the entire family, from magic shows to tubing to activities for adults like karaoke and wine tastings to soccer tournaments for all ages.

July is the month for winter vacation for South American schools, so these weeks are popular with families from Brazil, Argentina, Peru and Chile as well as North American families on summer vacation escaping the heat for some fun on snow. Kids of all ages meet throughout the hotel, skiing together, playing and becoming friends.

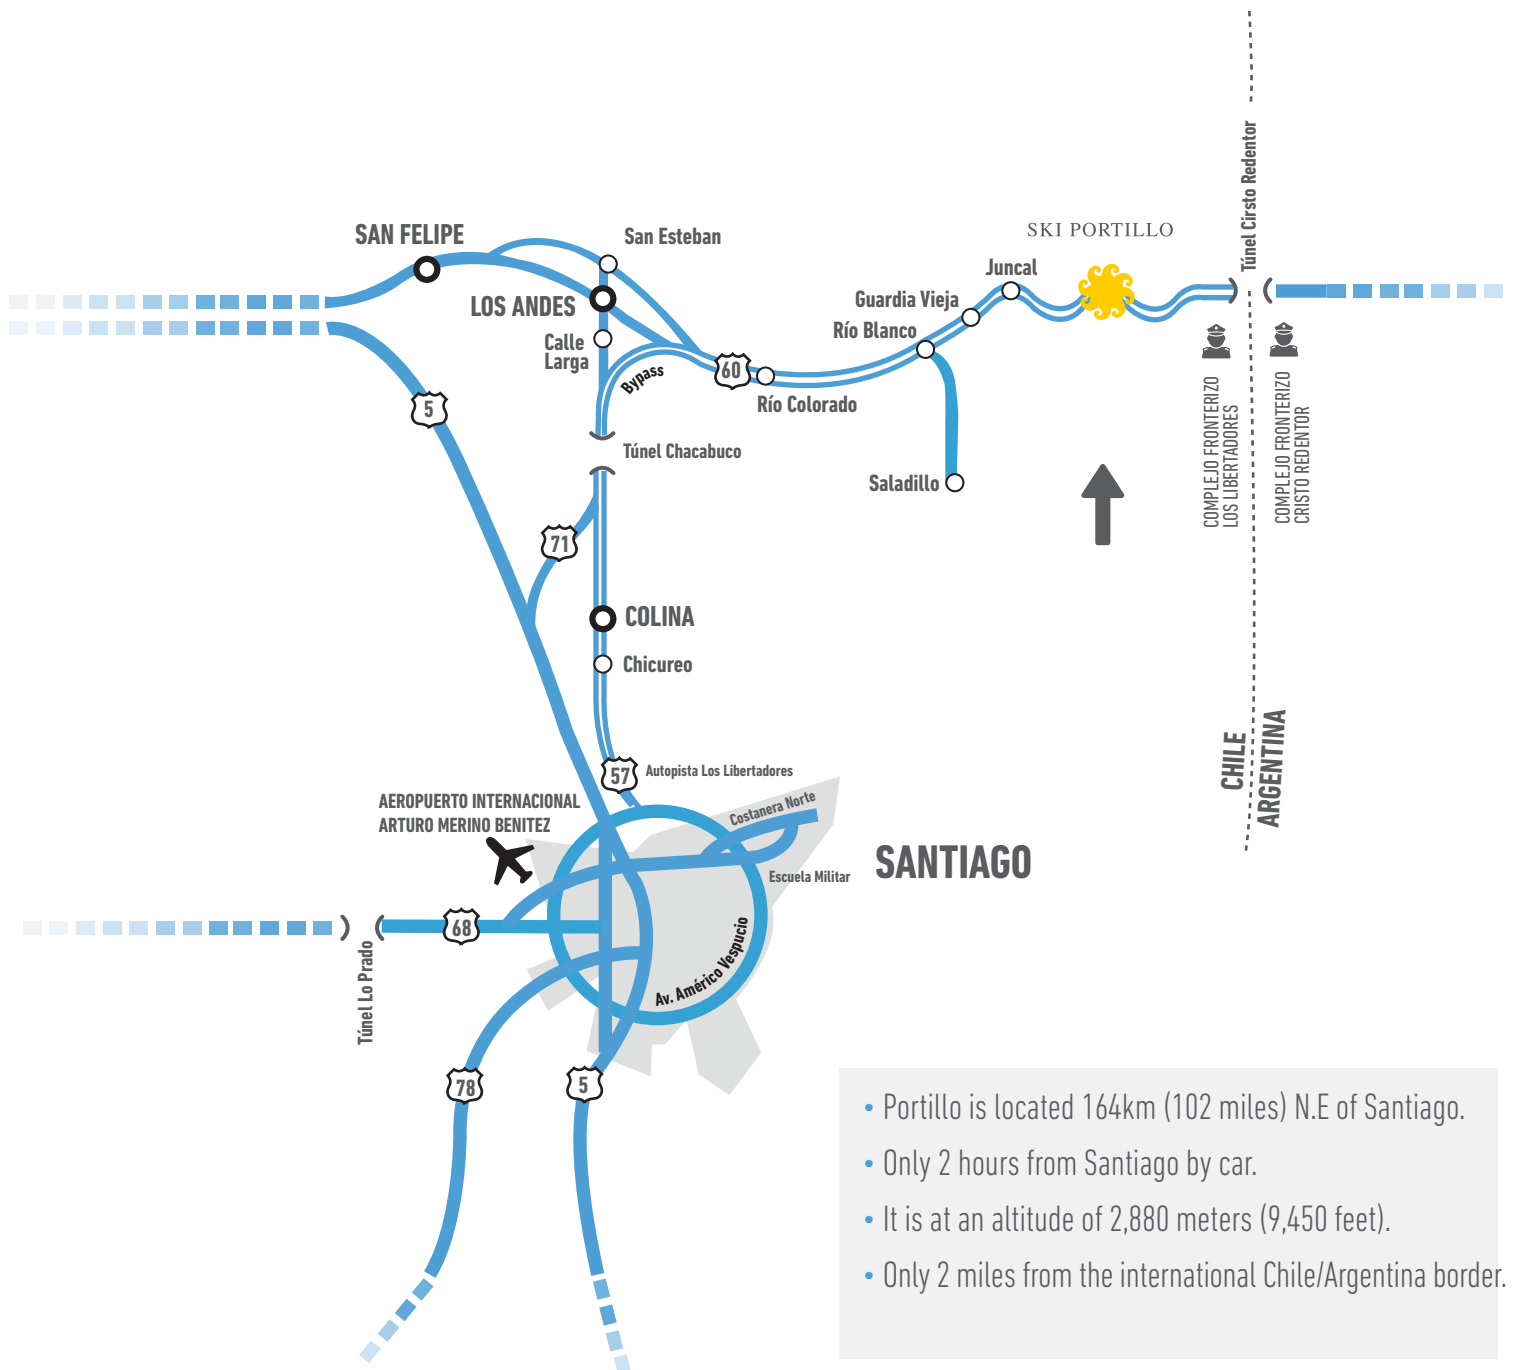

How to get there

Getting to Portillo is easy. Located two hours northeast of Santiago the drive to Portillo follows a scenic route through vineyards, fruit groves, the Rio Aconcagua and the Andes. Make sure to look out the window, you might be able to spot a Condor or two on the way!

Since cars are not needed at Portillo, we recommend booking either private or group transportation to and from the hotel with our sister company Portillo Tours and Travel.

Family Lodging Options

Ski Portillo has several lodging options available for families, from comfortable Chalets to connecting rooms in the hotel.

Family apartments, located in our iconic Hotel Portillo, are an ideal option for families from four to six people that want to stay together. With two connecting rooms, one with a queen-size bed and the other with two bunk beds, this option is great for couples with younger kids. They can enjoy all the comforts and convenience of the hotel as well as easy mobility to dining and hotel activities.

Another option for families are the Chalets, with a capacity ranging from four to eight people. The private lodges bring a cozy and intimate feel with the convenience of ski-in/ski-out access as well as the nearby comfort to the services of the hotel a few steps away.

For a more affordable option, the Octagon Lodge rooms are a great alternative. Lodging up to four people in a room, these rooms have two bunks beds with a private bathroom. Only steps away from the hotel, guests staying here also enjoy all the facilities and activities of the hotel.

Where to Eat?

Unlike other resorts, meals at Portillo are included in guest's lodging packages. Guests enjoy four meals a day daily, including the traditional Chilean tea time after the slopes close. Included meals are in the hotel dining room or cafeteria, but you can also choose from on mountain options at an additional cost.

The hotel dining room is a wonderful place to share family meals in a relaxed setting with full-service. For families looking to get the most of their time on the slopes, the hotel cafeteria offers quick breakfast and lunch service in the hotel.

On-mountain dining doesn't get better than Tio Bob's. A Portillo classic where guests can enjoy a selection of salads, sandwiches and grill items with an icy drink and panoramic views of the lake and the surrounding mountains. The perfect place to enjoy the Portillo sun with the family before skiing back down.

For parents that want to watch their kids learning to ski, the Ski Box is a wonderful on mountain dining option. Boasting outdoor seating with views of Corralito and Las Lomas, this restaurant is a favorite for families with beginner and intermediate skiers. Sandwiches, drinks and snacks are available all day for a full lunch stop or a quick break.

Where to Ski?

Ski Portillo's easy ski-in/ski-out access to the slopes takes any hassle out of skiing with the family.. Guests simply have to walk or take the elevator to the lower level of the hotel, get their boots and skis from the ski check, walk out the door, clic in, and glide to the lifts. It doesn't get any more convenient to hit the slopes.

Portillo's slopes are easy to navigate and best experienced with the guidance of our ski instrucotrs. The entire family can improve their skiing and enjoy quality time together with lessons from our renowned ski school. The weekly Sol de Portillo ski race on Thursdays brings an opportunity for friendly competition for skiers of all ages.
